

Yadam Institute of Research
World's Leading Human Rights, Duties & Gender Research Center

HUMAN RIGHTS Course Catalogue Online Courses-2021

Yadam Institute of Research is an Independent, apolitical, universal Rights, Responsibilities and Duties research center which is based on the concept Research, Action and Publication. It aims to work as nodal center to bring together academics, practitioners, Researchers and policy-makers from across the globe to advance in Human Rights Education and Research.

We invite established organizations, institutions, colleges, universities, corporate and government bodies partner with us for Research, Action and Publication. We welcome youths to join Human Rights Literacy Mission as Missionary. This is volunteer position where youths are given opportunity become global campaigner of human rights and duties education and awareness. Every missionary is allotted a jurisdiction where he or she works under a systematic model of HRLM.

We have always open policy for youth researchers and advanced research professionals including professors, scientists, scholars and authors, to join YIR as researchers. The institute provides scope for individuals working with other universities and institutes across globe to be a part of Research Team. We believe the world is a social laboratory thus it can't be studied with-in four walls of premises.
